WOLF KAHN IN THE ROCKIES

Paintings by the great American colorist Wolf Kahn (b. 1927) are coming to Jackson Hole, Wyo. "Wolf Kahn: Refractions of Light, Paintings and Pastels," Aug. 19-Oct. 24, 2010, goes on view at the Taylor Piggott Gallery in a show co-organized with Camille Obering Art Advisory. The exhibition marks the first time that Kahn, whose works have been shown in art centers on both coasts, is being exhibited in the Rockies, and fans of his work can look forward to matching his ethereal, formalist compositions of color and light -- until now suggestive of the landscapes of the northeast -- to the more dramatic landscape of the West.
